

The following prayer is recited on behalf of a person who is ill. In it, we implore God to heal the person and we commit to giving charity on his or her behalf, in line with Talmudic dictum, "Charity saves from death."

May He who blessed our fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Moses and Aaron, David and Solomon, heal (patient's Jewish name) the son/daughter of (mother's Jewish name), because (your Jewish name) the son/daughter of (your father's Jewish name)

For a male, continue:

pledged charity, for his sake.
In this merit may the Holy One, blessed be He, be filled with mercy for him, to restore him to health and to cure him, to strengthen him and to invigorate him. And may He hasten to send him a complete recovery from heaven to his 248 bodily parts and 365 veins, among the other sick people of Israel, a healing of spirit and a healing of body; and let us say, Amen.

For a female, continue:
